

21 September 2012

The Principal – Peter Mercouris
Australian Investigations Security Management
Court House Chambers
Suite 7, Level 1, 21 George Street,
PARRAMATTA NSW 2150

Dear Sirs,

The team at Oxford Legal would like to take this opportunity to extend our kindest thanks for your services.

Since first engaging your business, you have continued to deliver timely and effective results in the areas of process serving, settlements and investigations and have both met and exceeded expectations. What has been particularly noteworthy is our client's responses to the timeliness of the services which gives our firm great pleasure in continuing to instruct your business in the future.

The services provided by you as settlement agents has been outstanding as you have willingly and effectively been involved in representing our firm and our clients in legal matters for both family law and property settlements. We have found your business to take a results driven approach to all matters they undertake on our behalf. It has been very refreshing to engage a company who is a part of the team.

Furthermore you have continuously demonstrated dependency and an understanding of the value of relationships with their clients. The timely deliverance of your services has been exceeded by the quite apparent expertise of your employees who continuously have ensured in the deliverance of the services in a professional yet personal approach in the conduct of the matters we have referred to you.

Our firm practices in the areas of Family Law, Property Law and Conveyancing, Criminal Law and Commercial/Civil Litigation and we will definitely continue to engage you in the future for investigations, process serving and settlements.

Yours faithfully,

OXFORD LEGAL

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Diane Chahine", is written over the typed name.

Diane Chahine
Solicitor